

Recognised as an exclusive private villa, The edge stays a notch above the best villa estates in the area of Pecatu and Uluwatu, Bali. The edge does not only offer stunningly located luxury villas with breathtaking views of the ocean in Pecatu, but is also a mere five-minute drive to one of the island's best 18-hole golf course. This lavish establishment offers three exclusive villas with a total of 10 rooms. Each of these villas has their own swimming pool, as well as unobstructed sea-view from every room.

Service is also guaranteed to be the very best at The edge, as every villa has a professional 24-hour dedicated butler service, ready to cater to the guests' every need. Trained by Magnum butlers, these butlers will carry out all the services the guests will ever need. From unpacking, to pressing, to serving meals, to putting a movie on in the cinema, the butlers are trained to focus on guest details and anticipate any need in an efficient and helpful manner.

A private service experience is also at its best as each breakfast is prepared in the villa's kitchen and personally served by the dedicated butler. The cuisine at The edge is all tailor-made, upon arrival after settling in, the Executive Chef will visit the guest to make a menu based on the guests' preferences. Lavish choices from seafood, to wagyu steaks are prepared according to the guests' requests and paired with one of the 200 vintages in the wine cellar. Instead of picking up dishes from the menu, guests have the luxury of consulting the Chef who will draw up a specially planned menu based on the gourmet preference of each guest. The star ingredient in this area is the sweet succulent seafood that is acquired fresh every day. Whether taking them through a Mediterranean culinary journey or fixing them subtle Asian delicacies and dishes, the freshness of these fruits of the sea will definitely shine through. Worry not if seafood is not your thing, as the local and imported poultry, meat and fresh produce that are available at the chef's kitchen will definitely provide something for each gourmand. All these fine culinary delights can only get better with a wine pairing that is available in a perfect elegant location of the guest's choice.

For further entertainment, each of the room in the villas is equipped with the latest in multimedia. From an iPhone / iPad dock for the sound system to home theatre with huge wide screens and reclining seats, these are but some of the many things that would enrich your stay at the cliff, overlooking the breathtaking views of the blue ocean from the pinnacle of the island of the gods. Each villa has its own private pool, private bale, spacious living and dining areas, mini-Mac and Apple TV with wireless Internet and a fully integrated entertainment of audio and visual pleasure.

The edge has three different choices of exclusive villas: The Mood (two bedrooms), The Cliff (three bedrooms) and The View (five bedrooms). All of the villas are generous in size, ranging from 1,500 square metrea to 3,500 square metres and each of the spacious villas offers you the privacy and space to indulge.

The jewel of the crown would be the biggest out of the three, 'The View' villa. It boasts two master bedrooms overlooking the Indian Ocean, three seaview bedrooms, two spacious living rooms, one dining room to cater for 12, a children's activity room, cinema room and on-site security/nanny residences. The villa boasts outdoor lounging areas and two private infinity pools with astonishing views.

The Cliff, a 1400 sqm two storey villa can be booked as a three bedroom villa with one master bedroom or a two bedroom villa and a one bedroom villa. Both options come with a spacious living room, dining room with a bar, and a fully-equipped modern office. Also, two seaview rooms upstairs and one master bedroom downstairs with two private pools, ample garden space and a terrace with dining bale and relaxation bale will help you to soak in all the uninterrupted stunning views of the ocean. For bigger groups, The Cliff can also be connected to The View villa to combine and make an eight bedroom villa.

The Spa at The edge is also an experience that should never be missed. With wall-less rooms and a curvaceous design, it brings the ocean feel into the spa by having running water on the spa floors of the massage treatment area. There are four treatment beds, two are beneath a vichy shower ideal for body washes, wraps, and scrubs. The rituals are tailor-made for The edge surrounding the four elements of Balinese offerings: water, rice, flowers, and fire. In addition, there are also rituals using organic spa products that are only available at The edge, offering Pevonia treatments that include a lush Caviar and Pearls Facial.

With all these treatments and luxuries that only enrich the stunning views even more, it would certainly be forgiven if one were tempted to move in and make the stay permanent.[SS]
